DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3, 5, 7, 9, and 18-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Westburg (US 3,718,341 A).

Westburg discloses a ski comprising a body 11, brackets 18 with pivot points, wear bar 12, and a detachable, adjustable glide member 26 disposed on the bottom of the ski and extending below and around the wear bar at an angle and located forward and rearward of the brackets, as shown in figures 1-5.

With respect to claims 18-22, Westberg does not disclose the snowmobile comprising an engine, drive track, transmission, or steering mechanism, all of these components are conventional on snowmobiles.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3618

4. Claims 10 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Westburg, as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Methany (US 5,040,818 A).

Westburg does not disclose a keel with cleat. Methany does disclose a ski comprising a keel 304, 305 with recess for housing a wear bar 115 and cleat 116, as shown in figure 3. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have provided the ski of Cook et al. with the keel, cleat, and wear bar of Methany in order to increase steering ability.

5. Claims 4 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Westburg, as applied to claim 1 above.

With respect to claims 4 and 8, simply adding extra glide members and/or making them integral with the ski is not patentable unless it produces an unexpected result and therefore it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have given the ski of Westburg and extra glide member and made them integral with the ski in order to increase steering control and increase strength of the connections.

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 12-17, 24, 25, 27, and 28 are allowed.
2. Claims 6, 23, and 26 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-5, 7-11, 18-23, and 26 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

With respect to the applicant's arguments concerning claim 1, the pivot points 18 of Westberg read on the pivot point as recited in claim 1 and therefore Westberg reads on the claim.

With respect to the applicant's arguments concerning claim 18, the arguments are moot in view of new grounds of rejection.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
